

Espinher becomes SIGLENT's first authorized distributor in Mexico

July 12, 2015

Siglent Technologies is pleased to announce our first authorized distributor in Mexico, Espinher, located near Mexico City.

Espinher describes themselves as, "An electronic engineering developer for any industry that requires technology to improve a process. That means specific design, electronic circuit boards, instrumentation, defect detection and avoid, motor speed control and general electronic systems improvements."

Espinher will sell the entire Siglent Technologies line of instruments and be supported out of our Solon, OH location. We certainly welcome them to our growing family.
